ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Work was begun Wednesday on the new flour shed to be erected by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. at West Derby. It will be 100 feet wide, 1,000 feet long, and one story high. A side track will extend through the center of the shed its entire length.

George C. Ruane, a well known horse trainer in Vermont, says that the scarcity of well-bred trotters and pacers is becoming more pronounced each year. It is almost impossible to find horses in this section that are of racing stock and the owner of a good race horse can command his own price for the animal. Morgan horses are scarce now and fewer of them are bred than in former years. Mr. Ruane has been engaged by Richard Blumenthal of Hartford, Conn., to buy a dozen or more trotters or pacers, but finds that it is difficult to locate the right kind.

Andrew Bullard and son, Thomas, who were driving through Middlebury early Thursday morning, met something which frightened their horses and the animals started on a wild run on Washington street. Near the bank they collided with a tree which threw the two men out and the horses freed themselves but were soon caught. The men were completely covered with mud and were more or less bruised and cut up. One of the horses was quite badly cut but it is thought not seriously so. Mr. Bullard is formerly from Blue Ridge, N. Y., having recently come to Cornwall, where he bought the Wright Spaulding farm.

A terrible accident occurred Wednesday morning as the 8 o'clock train on the Rutland and Washington division of the Delaware and Hudson railroad was nearing Shushan, N. Y. Harry Moore, of Rupert, was standing in the door of the milk car leaning out. A refrigerator car was on the side track, with the door thrown back, and as Moore leaned out the refrigerator door struck him, crushing his skull and mutilating his right arm. The door of the milk train was splintered and crushed. Moore was taken at once to the Troy hospital where he died about noon.

Miss Mary J. Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Russell of Burlington who sustained injuries to her ankle and leg, ten days ago at present is resting comfortably although it will be several weeks before she is able to use the limb. Miss Russell was coming down the stairs in the block at the northwest corner of Church and College streets when she fell. She was picked up and taken to her home. Dr. Church was summoned and found on examination that the young lady had broken two bones in her ankle and that the bones in her left leg below the knee cap had also been separated.

Eggs Wanted.

The poultry keeper wants eggs. He wants them, too, when they are worth the most money. L. R. Noyes of Brandon, Vt., tells of his success with poultry: "I have used Page's Perfected Poultry Food for about one year and my hens beat all other ones around here laying eggs."

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil, sunshine and of atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth? A tree of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect. You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and must first destroy the cause of the trouble. It's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. E. Bassett, of North Bridgewater, and Henry Emery, of Pomfret, had curious experiences last week. Both went hunting, the latter Thursday and the former Saturday, and after traveling about half a day returned home about dark and each shot a buck within a few rods of his home. Mr. Bassett on his own farm and Mrs. Emery on his father's farm.

Entered Complaint Against Himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Omer, of Taftville, started out during the open season for deer, each with a weapon, to shoot rabbits and whatever other game appeared. In the edge of Hartland, near their home, Mr. Omer tripped a buck standing in the open and fired at him. The buck got away, but the bullet went beyond into the bushes and killed a doe hidden there. Mr. Omer immediately went home, took $100 and went to Woodstock, entered complaint against himself to Deputy Sheriff E. A. Thomas, and left the money with him. Officer Thomas forwarded the money together with a story of the occurrence, to State Fish and Game Commissioner H. G. Thomas, of Stowe, who replied, saying he could find no legal authority for returning the money or any part of it; that the law was apparently framed to prevent such mistakes by compelling caution, and that the Vermont courts had held that a person so entering complaint against himself was not thereby entitled to moiety. Commissioner Thomas heartily commended the honest and gentlemanly course of Mr. Omer and said that if any exception could possibly be made Mr. Omer would have been entitled to it.
